MR. ANDREW BERRY MARRIED. Miss Mable Barlow, Young and Pretty,

One of the most interesting private marriages that have occurred in Richmond for some time was that which was selemnized in the parlors of Rev. Dr. William E. Hatcher's residence, on west Grace street, last evening, when Mr. Andrew J. Berry and Miss Mabel V. Barlow were made man and wife.

As was published exclusively in the Dispatch, Mr. Berry secured a heense for his marriage last Monday, and expected to have been matried on that right, but fate decreed otherwise. The groom-elect was taken sick and the marriage was indefinitely postponed. He recovered, however, the next day, and $20 last evening was the hour set for the ceremony to be performed. Fromptly at this hour the bridal party arrived, and were unhered into the parlor. There was a striking contrast in the appearance of the bride and groom-elect. The latter, who gave his age when he secured the license as 71, is a tall, athletic-looking man. The bride is only 21, and is rather short in stature, She is a beautiful little woman, however, and as she entered the room with her future husband she was particularly pretty. She was attired in a costume of green ladies' cloth, 'trimmed with seal, and carried in her hand a bouquet of bride's roses.

The company scated themselves in the parlors and awaited the advent of the minister, but he did not materialize very promptly, and as the minutes began to increase in number the look of anxious expectancy which had been apparent on all the faces of the party began to deepen into one of gloomy nervousness. Dr. Hatcher arrived in due time, and with profuse smiles made his applogles for detaining his guests. He had been in attendance on a meeting at his church.

He made the twain one in a very few moments, however, and joy reigned supprence.

As soon as the nuptial knot had been the dand the congratulations of their Becomes His Bride. One of the most interesting private mar-preme.

As soon as the nuptial knot had been tied and the congratulations of their friends had been received, Mr. and Mrs. Herry were driven to their residence, on Grace street near Seventh.

Mr. Berry's eldest son, Mr. William Berry, acted as best man for his father. The Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday morning Louis King (colored) was assessed $10 and coars for throwing stones at and breaking the window of the house of Lote Porkins. breaking the window of the house of Lula Perkins.

Joe Johnson (colored) was fined $2.50 for fighting, and Maria Lewis was taxed a like sum for creating a disturbance on the premises of Nancy Allen.

Willie Maxwell, a negro youth, was sent out to the grand jury of the Hustings Court for entering the room of Robert Davis in the nighttime and stealing there-from a lot of collars and cuffs, the pro-perty of Davis.

Funeral of J. J. O'Sullivan. The funeral of Mr. John J. O'Sullivan, the young man from Richmond who was shot in Patterson, Ga., a few days ago and died shortly afterward in Jessup, that State, took place from St. Patrick's church yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock. A large concourse of friends and relatives of the deceased attended the obsequies. The remains were buried in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Jury Congratulated the Judge. Hustings Court was very busy yes, Many cases were tried, and after ay's work was over the jury field th Judge Witt's office and congratu-him individually upon his re-elec-

Where are you, my friend?
RIGHT NEXT TO THE BAND WAGON? Are you regretting your negligence, or did you clip three of the little coupons from this paper last week and receive as your reward that beautiful portfolio of which we have so often told you?

The coupons for the second part are appearing regularly now. Clip them out; they will not appear again after Saturday. If you didn't get last week's conpons, look up the back numbers of this paper and secure them before it is too late.

WE WILL REPEAT
once more the terms of our great proposition. You have, of course, heard of that great work entitled "SIGHTS AND SCENES OF THE WORLD." It consists of 320 marvelious photographic views, each 10% x13 inches. This is divided into twenty parts, each containing sixteen views, neatly and durably bound. They will be delivered to you at the office of this paper or sent to your address by mail, securely protected in a pasteboard tube. What you have to do is this: Clip three coupons from different issues (in the same week) of this paper. Bring or send them to the Coupon Department of The Disparch, together with ten cents (the bare expense of packing and mailing), and receive in return the part which your coupons call for. Each week's coupons will call for a different part until all are issued. If you want two parts instead of one, six coupons of different numbers and eight two-cent COUPON DEPARTMENT. THE DISPATCH.

TO SAVE MONEY.

All persons who have resolved to save something during the year 1894 are invited to consider the desirability of the Instalment Stock of THE OLD DOMINION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, which is sold under the following regulations: A subscriber pays $1 per share as an entrance fee, and every month thereafter sixty cents per share. To illustrate: Taking ten shares the subscriber would pay an entrance fee of $10, and then every month thereafter would pay $6. During seven years the subscriber would pay in $508, and it is estimated that at the end of that period his ten shares will be worth in cash $1,000, payable on demand.
